District Overview:

- Nighttime burglaries and a home invasion robbery were reported in Peppertree.

J1 Beat:

- The residential burglary on Dawn View Court occurred on Monday 6/20, 1:00 to 1:15 a.m. The unknown suspect pried open a rear basement window and entered the window carrying rocks. A resident apparently interrupted the burglary and the unknown suspect fled, leaving the rocks next to a TV. The victim's son just received a new Xbox as a gift and the Xbox is normally connected to the TV where the rocks were found. On this particular day the son carried the Xbox to his room. It is likely that an acquaintance of the victim's son entered the house intending to steal the Xbox and brought the rocks to use as weapons in case he / she was discovered.
- The residential burglary (mentioned last week) in the 1300 block of Excalibur Lane occurred on Monday 6/13, 8:50 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The suspect broke a rear window with a rock, then placed a lawn chair under the window to access the house. Taken: cash and jewelry.

J2 Beat:

- The residential burglary on Barnridge Court occurred on Tuesday 6/21 at 3:30 p.m. The victim left for a few minutes and received a call from his alarm company. When the victim came back he discovered the back door smashed open. Prescriptions drugs were taken.
- The residential burglary in the 5000 block of Tothill Drive (mentioned last week) occurred on Monday 6/13, 3:50 to 4:13 a.m. The victim was asleep on the couch and awoke upon hearing the front door close. The unknown suspect had walked in the unlocked rear door, picked up the victim's wallet and Blackberry, and left through the front door.
- The indecent exposure at the community pool at 3337 Tidewater Court occurred on Sunday 6/12 at 12 noon, but was not reported until 6/17. The victim is a female lifeguard. The suspect approached the victim as she was opening the pool. The suspect called to her, "Hi, new lifeguard." The victim looked behind her and saw the suspect, a black male, 20's, wearing a black do rag, and long dark shorts, NFD, with his pants around his knees, exposing his genitals. The suspect was smiling and the victim noted he was missing several teeth on the upper right side of his mouth.

K1 Beat:

- The rape reported in the 3000 block of Hewitt Avenue on Monday 6/20 is domestic related and under investigation.
- The residential robbery at 3200 block of Whispering Pines Court occurred on Wednesday 6/16 at 4:43 a.m. The suspect, a black male, 20-25, 5'7"-5'9". 160-180 lbs., thin build, entered the apartment through an unlocked window. The suspect went to the victim's bedroom and poked the female victim with the barrel of a rifle. He then asked the victim and her husband, "Where's the money?" The male victim directed the suspect to his wallet that was in pants draped over a chair. The suspect left through the slider with the wallet. The cash however, was not in the wallet, but in a pants pocket; the suspect obtained a wallet full of business cards.
- The strong-arm attempt robbery in the 2400 block of Sun Valley Circle occurred on Saturday 6/18 at 6:15 p.m. The adult female victim was exiting her vehicle. Two black males, 16-18, 5'2"-5'4", ran up behind her, pushed her and grabbed her wallet. The suspects ran toward Del Mercado Plaza. Taken: wallet.
- The armed robbery in the hallway in the 4000 block of Postgate terrace occurred on Friday 6/18 at 4:10 a.m. The victim was putting his key in the door lock when he was approached by two possible Hispanic male suspects both 5'10"- 6'1" thin build, and both wearing black balaclava style ski masks, dark colored t-shirts, and khaki pants. One suspect was armed with a black semi automatic handgun. That suspect demanded all the victim's money. The victim gave the suspect $20 from his wallet. The second suspect removed $50 from the victim's pant's pocket. The K-9 track led south on Georgia, then north on Connecticut and ended at Connecticut and Grand Pre Road.
- Three residential apartment burglaries were reported. Two occurred during nighttime hours:
 - 14100 block Whispering Pines Ct. Mon. - Tue. 6/13, 10:30:p.m.- 7:45: a.m. Victims were home, suspect entered through unlocked window; taken: laptop, camera.
